ALEX SIEFKEN

"Having been set free from bi-polar disorder and released from a psychiatric institution, my life was radically transformed at CFNI from self-loathing and insecurity to accepting and valuing myself as a child of God."

ANU PANNEER SELVAM

"As a former homeless person who practiced Hindu, I viewed God as a distant being who I had to appease through performing many rituals. However, at CFNI God became real to me as a loving Father who forgives, redeems and desires a personal relationship with me."
